

Player's Code of Conduct:

Support your Team and Club.

Play by the Rules of the Game.

Play for the "fun of it", not just to please your parents or coaches.

Never argue with umpires, coaches, adults or players from your own or your opponents' team.

Control your temper and use your energies for playing better Baseball.

Never throw equipment, even if it's your own.

Play well for yourself and your team; your team's performance will benefit and so will your own.

Be a good sport; recognise all good play, both by your team or your opponents.

Treat all players as you yourself would like to be treated. Do not interfere with, bully or take unfair advantage of any player.

Remember that the aims of the game are to have fun, improve your skills, and feel good about being a part of a Team.

Co-operate with your coach, team mates and opponents, for without them you will not have a game.

Learn the Rules of the Game, and you will be a much better player.

Promote this Code of Conduct.

As a PLAYER of Bracknell Baseball Club, I agree to follow the above Code of Conduct.
